The Overland China Mail,

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL

IS PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each English and French Mail Steamer for Europe. . It contains special Commercial intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue. The Overland China Mail, by the convenience of its form and the accuracy and fulness of its reports, has long been popular with residents who wish to send home a weekly budget of the news of Hongkong and the Far East. Circulating, as it does, among nearly all the old China hands at Home and also among residents at the Treaty Ports and in the interior, it offers special advantages to advertisers. The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to the Office. - _____ SUBSCRIPTION :

The list of scoeptable jurors summoned gave out before the cases were finished, and the result was that some jurous had to serve twice. Those who sat on the first day of the sessions were summoned to appear again this morning by a notice in the newspapers. The call, being an nnusual one, was misunderstood by some of the gentlemen concerned, and they did not present themselves in Court, thus rendering themselves liable to a fine. The The Acting Chief Justice, however, after hearing the explanation from the defaulters, who put in an appearance at the close of to-day's sitting, refrained from imshows a deficiency to Great Britain of 131 posing a fine, the infliction of which in the circumstances would certainly have been a the Garrison Theatre, Dr Cantlie gave a highly-amusing and interesting discourse last night on Scottish song and story. After first satisfying himself that his hearers were 'a' John Tamson's balans and likewise 'a' as 'oo', the genial dector plunged into his subject without further preface, and recounted, with immitable drollery and guato, a series of anecdotes and stories; chiefly humorous, and illustrative of various sides of Scotch character. Many of his stories referred to incidents which had come under his own observation and which had appealed to his own keen sense of what is odd and characteristic in Scotch folk; and his manner of telling them, not less than the matter of the stories themselves, provoked roars of laughter. The samples' from his inexhaustible stock followed each other with such rapidity that the audience had hardly finished laughing at one when they had to laugh at another. and many of the pawky comments and audible 'ssides' were equally enjoyable. but for the presence of the Manager, sit the early age of 51. DROUGHT IN THE FUKIEN PROVINCE. We regret that very bad news has been received from the province of Fukien. While for thousands of miles around Shanghai the country is flooded, yet the province of Fukien is suffering from drought. hear that no rain has fallen since the early part of August in that district. On the 26th of August the officials all prayed rain, but their prayers were of no avail The heat has been very great and nearly all the creeks and wells are dry, and many get water from the large streams. Some these are stopped and robbed of the water they are carrying. The fields in a greater part of the province are literally baked with the heat. Many of the people have died through the want of water.

From the native papers we learn that in Still the audience was far from satisted, the Kansuh province, Lau-che district, has panied by heavy rain, and that during the storm many houses were levelled to the ground on account of the heavy weight of the hail, some of which were blocks of ice as big as a man's fist. Many of the cattle were killed, and stores of people injured, him. Bishop's unaccompanied people's wants are not more liberally at- I sold him to a shopkeeper in the village and got 2,800 cash for him.' A little boy, of eight years, standing by, turned to his father and said : Why, I thought you got 3.000 cash for him, and the matter seemed of no importance, beyond the price received, to either of them. Wife-selling also prevails, but it is not very common; We the parents are able to exercise a whole some check in this matter, for in case of mistreatment they may accuse the husband before the magistrate and make him pay dearly for his folly. Two cases have recently occurred in Tai Ku which illustrate this: In these cases the second wife took opium peop o have to travel a great distance to to unite her husband and died, and the lausband, being accused before the magistrate by the parents, was fined 80,000 cash, a heavy sum for labouring men. I was called to attend a case in which the second wife sought to end her life with opium, and was only prevented doing so by my timely arrival. Very soon thereafter the man called for the parent of his wife, and arranged with them to take the girl back home, which they did for a alight consideration. The wife may be mistreated, but she has the means of revenge at hand, for opium is found in almost every house and all know how to use it. A vast majority of the opium cases are women. It is the oustom in China for the bridegroom to pay a certain amount of money for his wife, but it is not always true, suppose, that the amount given determines the esteem in which the wife is held. One rather bright and pretty woman came to visit us one day, and as she went out the gatekeeper said : . That is a silver woman. She cost Tls. 150.' The heaband being a comparatively poor man, was certainly The Chinese are busy building new forts proud of his rather costly wife. It would
